

NCHCFA Spring District Meetings 2019

NCHCFA has scheduled the spring district meetings. District meetings allow participants to interact with peers in a comfortable atmosphere, promoting valuable and productive conversation. Space will be limited to 50 individuals per location and will be open to any employees of your facility who may benefit from attending. Registration fee is $50.00 for NCHCFA members.

This program will offer 3.0 contact hours for nursing home administrators. The North Carolina Health Care Facilities Association is a Registered Sponsor of continuing education with the NC State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators. Comments regarding the Registered Sponsor Course may be addressed to: NCBENHA, 3733 National Drive, Suite 110, Raleigh, NC 27612.

Agenda

10:00 AM – 10:30 AM

Alliant Quality (QIN-QIO)

Alliant Quality will present an update on NC's facilities' quality measures.

10:30 AM – 1:30 PM

Drug Diversion in LTC: Safe Practices, Handling, and Disposal Methods

In this session, attendees will learn of narcotic diversion principles within long term care and how handling, storage, and safeguards play a role daily in your facility. Implementation of Facility action plans will be discussed along with best strategies to prevent diversion within your facility. Proper narcotic disposal methods of medication waste will be defined along with new federal regulations.

(12:00 PM – 12:30 PM – Lunch)

Speakers

Marybeth Watson Terry grew up in Pink Hill, NC and attended UNC – Chapel Hill and the UNC-CH School of Pharmacy where she graduated with her Doctor of Pharmacy degree in 1999. In September of 2003, she and her husband, Chad Terry started Southern Pharmacy Services in Pink Hill and have now expanded to serve residents across all of North Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia with its three locations. The Kernersville, NC location opened in 2008 and the Wytheville, Virginia location joined in 2011. Southern Pharmacy serves long-term care facilities, staff and residents with a focus on teamwork, honesty and customer service. Marybeth was recognized for excellence in the community by the Kinston Free Press as one of their "Twenty Under Forty" selections as well as received the 2015 President's award from the North Carolina Senior Living Association.

Glenn Whitley, PharmD. is the Director of Operations for Southern Pharmacy Services, Pink Hill location. Glenn joined Southern in November 2014 via the Extensive Pharmaceutical acquisition. Glenn has over 19 years of experience within the long term care industry, and geriatric populations. He has a degree in Chemistry from East Carolina University and a Doctorate of Pharmacy from Campbell University. He currently lives in Kinston with wife, Joanne and they have 2 children. Glenn and his team are focused on providing excellent customer service and resident care.
