Advocacy Matters

The past two years have shown us that the need for effective and continued advocacy has never been more important. As the election year in North Carolina ramps up, we understand the importance of keeping our profession's interests at the forefront in Raleigh.

Our Ask

Financially support the NCHCFA/PAC and ensure that our voice is heard by NC legislators.

Why We're Asking

2022 is an election year in North Carolina. We must take an active role in the political process and contribute to candidates who appreciate the work our members do.

Why Give Now

Your early contribution will position us for what is likely to be a turbulent year. Plus, every individual who contributes $250 or more between 1/1/2022 and 5/26/2022 will be entered into a drawing for a $500 Amazon gift card!

Contribute $250+ between 1/1/22 and 5/26/22 for a chance to win a $500 Amazon gift card!

NCHCFA/PAC FAQs

How much money can I contribute to NCHCFA/PAC?
Individuals may not contribute more than $5,600 per election.

Are NCHCFA/PAC contributions tax-deductible?
No. Contributions made to a political action committee are not tax-deductible.

Can I send a corporate check to NCHCFA/PAC?
No. Only personal funds can be accepted.

How much can the NCHCFA PAC give to a candidate?
A state PAC is limited to contributing $5,600 per candidate per election.

Where do NCHCFA/PAC dollars go?
NCHCFA/PAC funds are spent on North Carolina state political races. NCHCFA/PAC donates to Democrats and Republicans alike from across the state.

Who decides which candidates receive NCHCFA/PAC support?
All distributions are approved by the NCHCFA/PAC Committee, which is comprised of three members who are selected by the Chair of the NCHCFA Board of Directors.

How does NCHCFA/PAC select candidates to receive its financial support?
Contributing factors, among others, include:

- A candidate's proven record of support for issues that promote our priorities.
- An incumbent candidate's position in the General Assembly as a Chair or member of a critical committee, or influence with the elected leadership of the House or Senate.
- A candidate's willingness to fight on our behalf even when confronted with heavy opposition.
