WHY JOIN

Our trade associate members and sponsors help to support programs and services that create strategies to deal with a variety of profession-related issues. NCHCFA is committed to providing opportunities for our vendor partners to engage with our provider members and exchange ideas.

NCHCFA offers flexible sponsorship opportunities to ensure you get the most out of our partnership. We align your business with top decision makers in senior care across the state to maximize your return on investment (ROI). This includes:

- Discounted member prices on education events
- Access to exclusive sponsorship opportunities
- Powerful lead generation capabilities
- Elevated brand awareness and visibility
- Access to the 2024 online membership directory
- NCHCFA's communications regularly reach more than 1,500 long term care professionals across the state
- NCHCFA's LinkedIn includes a thriving community of actively engaged professionals

NCHCFA provides Associate membership effective
January 1 - December 31, 2024.

All 2024 Trade Associate memberships
INCLUDES ONE TRADE SHOW BOOTH AT EXPO 2024 and all the benefits below.

Online Membership Directory

Our Membership Directory is for the sole use of our members. This includes a detailed listing of corporate offices, member nursing facilities, and Trade Associate members by service types. Access to the directory will be available to all NCHCFA members in January.

NCHCFA Website

Our website provides long term care updates and resources, a calendar of events, a facility finder tool, a listing of our Board of Directors and staff, membership information, online registration for educational seminars, and much more. Associate members are listed with a link to their website and email addresses.

UPDATE Weekly

The association's newsletter is emailed weekly to all members. UPDATE features highlights of regulatory and legislative policy and promotes various events of interest including upcoming educational opportunities.

NCHCFA Associate Advisory Committee

The Associate Advisory Committee is comprised of NCHCFA trade associate members. This committee works closely with the NCHCFA Education and Programs Committee to determine social events, agenda, and networking opportunities at in-person events and suggestions for NCHCFA/PAC fundraising events. Committee assignments are two-year terms and appointed by the NCHCFA Board of Directors Chair.

ABOUT NCHCFA

The North Carolina Health Care Facilities Association is a non-profit trade association and represents close to 400 nursing facilities. Our mission is to elevate members through advocacy, professional development, and promotion of quality services. NCHCFA is a state affiliate of the American Health Care Association (AHCA).

NCHCFA Trade Associate members get exclusive access to NCHCFA's events and educational opportunities.

Annual Convention & Expo

February 18 - 21

Our annual convention and trade show provides an opportunity for long term care professionals to share best practices and learn state-of-the-art advances through educational seminars and networking while earning continuing education hours. Our Expo is one of the largest and best organized in the South and continually sells out each year. Your 2024 Trade Associate membership includes ONE trade show booth.

NCHCFA Legislative Conference

April 30 - May 1

This centers around legislative appointments where members meet with key lawmakers in North Carolina to educate them on issues that affect the long-term care profession.

NCHCFA/PAC Annual Golf Tournament

September 8

Our golf tournament is a fun way for our members to support the important activities of our PAC's advocacy efforts and network with colleagues.

NCHCFA Fall Symposium

September 9 - 11

This conference provides educational classes over a three-day period with ample opportunity for networking with colleagues. A special networking package is available for Associate Members at a reduced fee.

Virtual Educational Offerings

Various Dates

Several webinars are scheduled throughout the year and designed to bring providers the latest information on operations, regulatory and legal issues, reimbursement, and care/service management.
